Anyone wishing to attend either of these talks is welcome. A small cover charge of $10 per person applies for non members for both talks.

Back from Noumea:

I have just returned from my second trip to Noumea this year; balmy weather and temperatures in the mid 20's weren't the only reason for the return however. Ongoing feng shui work with new clients and follow-ups with those from my first trips were a major reason for my return. Once again I would like to extend my thanks to my delightful hosts Andre and Marie-Anne for making it all possible. On this trip two talks were given and trips to Mont Dore and Mount Kogi were interesting excursions. I look forward to my next trip; mostly likely early 2013.

Date Selection Services

Got an important meeting coming up, an elective surgery operation, or an overseas trip? Something you especially want to go smoothly? A number of clients, mostly corporate, but not exclusively, have been availing themselves of these new services on a regular basis now since my February launch of this aspect of fine tuned feng shui and all report improved success rates with their application. Overseas business trips, especially the planning of return journeys against the negative effects of Tai Sui, setting dates for important business meetings, particularly negotiations for important contracts and arranging finances, but also choosing dates which work towards raising the profile and status of either their companies or themselves, all describe results in the clear affirmative. One client said, "It was the best trip ever. Everything just flowed so smoothly!" while another reports, "Since using the new dates, we have had a steady flow of new orders in; and this in spite of a sluggish market!"

Call me now if you want to take advantage of this finely tuned aspect of feng shui and maximise your very own natural potential.

"Year of the Dragon"

Filming of hour length documentary underway.

In mid March, I was approached by Elizabeth Mitchell of Fire Horse Productions, (Of Bro Town fame), asking if I would participate in the filming of a documentary looking at the year of the dragon with Oscar Kightly as presenter. After several fruitful discussions, and a lot of preparation, filming began in late May at the superb Zen Gardens in Whitford.

Further filming sessions have since taken place and I am told that the finished product will go to air sometime in July or August on TV3. I will let you know when final dates and times are announced. It has been exciting and a lot of fun working with Oscar, Elizabeth and her crew. Thanks for making it so much fun guys!

Events in the Year of the Dragon so far and the influences we can define them by:

- Yang Water – an ocean pressing forward:
 - Floods across east- south-eastern Australia and Fiji
 - Flooding in Wales touted as 60 year floods – I can’t help finding it amusing that this year’s imagery of Yang Water (like an ocean) sitting on the Dragon fits perfectly with floods in Wales which has the Dragon on it’s national flag
 - Second shipping disaster with Costa’s Allegra stranded to southeast of the Horn of Africa
 - Boating tragedy off New Zealand’s southeast
 - Large protests in Florida (south-eastern USA), over racist murder of black teenager Trayvon Martin
 - Lady Gaga’s visit to Indonesia cancelled after large fundamentalist Moslems protest in advance
 - Student protests bring chaos to:
 - Downtown Auckland
 - Chile
 - Quebec
 - Spain
 - Egypt
- Dragon (Earth energies - no Noble-man)
 - Bus tragedy in Swiss tunnel kills children
 - Micro-light aircraft crash kills two near Hellensville (Dragon Day – Dragon Year)
 - Two major earthquakes off Sumatra
 - Earthquake in Mexico
 - Major earthquakes in northern Italy
 - Suicide bomber kills 15 in Iraq: Dog Day, Rooster Hour (18th June 2012, 5-7pm)
- Dragon (Heaven’s Gate) – strange/odd phenomena in the skies:
 - China’s Space programme sees successful docking of capsule and first Chinese woman in space. Although not strange as such, China’s space programme currently is its first and outstrips the present USA programme.
 - Aurora Australis makes spectacular show over Southland early this winter.

- Feng Shui – 6 Centred Year: The father comes under attack:
- Charles Taylor –Liberia dictator convicted of crimes against humanity and jailed for 50yrs
- Hozni Mubarak jailed for life
- International pressure increases on Syria’s Assad
- Sarkozy loses French elections
- Putin wins against angry claims of fraud
- John Key’s popularity dips below 50%
- Shane Jones stood down over allegations
- Pope Benedict’s judgement questioned over Vatican leaks
- Prince Charles reported least favourite Royal
- Critics here spit the dummy at Prince Philip’s being awarded membership of the Order of New Zealand.

It is interesting to note by contrast, the Queen, momentarily at least the world’s favourite grandmother, has had an unmistakably successful Diamond Jubilee. One cannot help but wonder however, what the London Olympics will bring. London is after all in the Southeast of England. Let’s just hope they are successful and happy games!

SOMETHING TO PONDER:

Before you judge others, or claim any absolute truth, consider this:

You can see less than 1% of the electromagnetic spectrum and hear less than 1% of the acoustic spectrum. As you read this, you are travelling at 220 kilometres per second across the galaxy. 90% of the cells in your body carry their own microbial DNA and are not “you”. The atoms in your body are 99.999999999999999999% empty space and none of them are the ones you were born with, but they all originated in the belly of a star. Human beings have 46 chromosomes, 2 less than the common potato. The existence of the rainbow depends on the conical photoreceptors in your eyes, to animals without cones, the rainbow does not exist. So you don’t just look at a rainbow, you create it. This is pretty amazing, especially considering that all the beautiful colours you see represent less than 1% of the electromagnetic spectrum.
